Press Release: "A Clean House for a Sweetheart" Contest

Walkerton, January 2 -- To reward one special Michiana resident with a clean house, CleanRite Cleaning Services (www.cleanritecleaning.com) is launching "A Clean House for a Sweetheart" Poetry Contest. Dawn Gorby-Verhaeghe, owner of CleanRite, wants to reward one lucky person with a special Valentine, a free initial house or apartment cleaning. The prize will be awarded in conjunction with Valentine's Day, allowing the winner the time to spend with loved ones while his/her home is professionally cleaned.

CleanRite, which serves residential and commercial clients within a 60-mile range of Walkerton, was founded in 2000 by Dawn Gorby-Verhaeghe, a mother who wanted the best of both worlds: working and staying home with her children. Yet with the responsibilities of working out of her office, running a successful business, and taking care of her family, Dawn empathizes with overworked and often overstressed people. "For many people, finding a balance between their loved ones and the responsibilities of life is a challenge. I'd like to give someone the gift of a clean house/apartment so that he/she can spend quality time with loved ones," Dawn says.

The winner, to be announced in early February, will receive one free initial house cleaning before Valentine's Day. A panel of judges, CleanRite employees who clean homes across the Michiana area, will determine the winner.

"A Clean House for a Sweetheart" Poetry Contest runs January 4, 2010 through February 5, 2010; the winner will be announced before Valentine's Day. The prize includes dusting, vacuuming, mopping, polishing furniture and cabinets, cleaning ceiling fans/fixtures, and more. To enter, write an original love poem of any length to a loved one. Please include your name and phone number, as well as your loved one's name, address, and phone number. Entries may be mailed to CleanRite Cleaning Services, Inc., P. O. Box 65, Walkerton, IN 46574 or e-mailed to verhaeghe@galaxyinternet.net by the contest deadline.
